

McDougal Littell Curriculum Resources

PowerPoint Presentations

Part Opener: Each Part 1 and Part 2 in each grade level includes two opening presentations which provide discussion prompts and visuals to build background knowledge about the literary device for “Learning the Language of Literature” and “The Active Reader.”

Reading and Analyzing: Each reading selection includes a presentation which supports the Reading and Analyzing section and includes differentiating instruction discussion prompts.

Writing Workshop: For each unit/part, a presentation has been created to introduce and support the student model and writing process for each writing genre. Each Writing Workshop presentation includes a graphic organizer that correlates directly with the genre.

Graphic Organizers

Differentiating Instruction: Advanced Learners, Less Proficient Readers, and English Learners will benefit from graphic organizers to support differentiating instruction activities.

Reading Comprehension: Numerous graphic organizers have been created to support Analyzing Literature and Active Reading activities for selected reading selections throughout the adoption.

Writing Skills: Each Writing Workshop is supported with a graphic organizer that supports a step, or steps, in the writing process.

Internet Resources

Websites: Relevant and appropriate websites have been identified for each of the reading selections.

Discovery Education Streaming: Titles of Discovery Education Streaming video clips have been identified and are included for each reading selection for those teachers who have a subscription to this resource. NOTE: Curriculum Companion does not include the actual clips.
